

Grading the “Bremontown Musicians” Sculpture

Name: _____

4 (Outstanding)

- All four animals are carefully constructed, no more than one missing part like an ear or tail.
- All four are carefully painted: the colors of each animal are different from the animal next to it and there are no white spots of unpainted clay showing anywhere.
- There are details added to the animals: eyes, noses, stripes or spots or other painted details to make the animal more real-looking.

3 (Satisfactory)

- All four animals are carefully constructed.
- All four are carefully painted: the colors of each animal are different from the animal next to it.
- There are details added to the animals: eyes, noses, stripes or spots or other painted details to make the animal more real-looking.

2 (Needs Improvement)

- All four animals are carefully constructed.
- All four are carefully painted.

1 (Needs Improvement)

- All four animals are there.
- All four are painted.

Grading the “Bremontown Musicians” Sculpture

Name: _____

4 (Outstanding)

- All four animals are carefully constructed, no more than one missing part like an ear or tail.
- All four are carefully painted: the colors of each animal are different from the animal next to it and there are no white spots of unpainted clay showing anywhere.
- There are details added to the animals: eyes, noses, stripes or spots or other painted details to make the animal more real-looking.

3 (Satisfactory)

- All four animals are carefully constructed.
- All four are carefully painted: the colors of each animal are different from the animal next to it.
- There are details added to the animals: eyes, noses, stripes or spots or other painted details to make the animal more real-looking.

2 (Needs Improvement)

- All four animals are carefully constructed.
- All four are carefully painted.

1 (Needs Improvement)

- All four animals are there.
- All four are painted.