

Spring Break 2009 in Spain

Madrid and Andalusia

Dates of Trip: April 4-13th

Cost of Trip: $2265*

Trip Highlights

- Fly from Dulles to Madrid
- Madrid: Visit the Prado Museum – the world’s largest art gallery and the Royal Palace of King Philip V
- Toledo: See the influence of Jewish, Christian, and Muslim cultures in the architecture of St. Mary’s Synagogue, The Church of Santo Tome, and Toledo Cathedral
- Granada: Visit the Royal Alhambra Palace and its magnificent gardens
- Costa del Sol: Spend a free day on the sunny southern coast or take a day trip to Morocco
- Seville: Visit Spain’s preeminent bullrings, the Golden Tower, and the palace of Pedro the Cruel. Special Flamenco Performance.
- Cordoba: See the Mezquita, formerly the largest mosque west of Mecca
- Madrid: Return by train and spend a free day in the city

Enroll now and save!

*Deadline for Spring Enrollment:
May 30th, 2008*

**Price based on spring enrollment. Enrollment will continue into the fall at increased prices.*

For more information contact:

Amani Elkassabany

301-279-8578 (w)

Amani\_m\_elkassabany@mcpsmd.org

Information Packets available in Room 275

The Prado

St. Mary's Synagogue

Alhambra

Costa del Sol

Torre del Oro

Mezquita