The programs are for highly motivated and academically accelerated students. Staff assumes students will have a solid mastery of concepts and skills required at the elementary level. In addition, students are expected to demonstrate above-average responsibility and follow-through, particularly in the area of long-term projects. Please note that we are asking you to identify the consistent level of the student's overall performance. This information aides in the analysis of the specific ratings that you give in the body of the teacher checklist. Your comments are especially helpful in giving us a well-rounded picture of the student. All information received from local school staff remains confidential.

How would you rate this student in relation to others you currently teach? (This is a relative measure. You do not need to calculate strict percentages.)
