A. PURPOSE

The Montgomery County Board of Education (Board) is committed to an environment that is free of bullying, harassment, or intimidation so that schools are a safe place in which to learn. Bullying, harassment, or intimidation is disruptive to learning and can adversely affect academic achievement, emotional well-being, and school climate.

The Board is committed to prohibiting verbal, physical or written (including electronic) bullying, harassment, or intimidation of any person on school property, on school buses, or at school-sponsored functions.

The Board is further committed to prohibiting reprisal or retaliation against individuals who report acts of bullying, harassment, or intimidation or who are bullied, witnesses, bystanders, or others with reliable information about an act of bullying, harassment, or intimidation.

B. ISSUE

The prevention of bullying, harassment, or intimidation as well as the prevention of retaliation against individuals who report acts of bullying, harassment, or intimidation requires a systemwide effort involving prevention and intervention training with students, administration, and school staff. 2. Threatening or seriously intimidating; and,
3. Occurs on a school property, at a school activity or event, or on a school bus; or,
4. Substantially disrupts the orderly operation of a school.

Cyberbullying is a form of bullying, harassment, and intimidation. “Cyberbullying” means a communication transmitted by means of an electronic device and includes the use of social media sites. Cyberbullying shall include any future applications that fall under “electronic communication.”

As used in this policy bullying may include but not be limited to physical (hitting, pushing, shoving), verbal (being teased, threatened, coerced, made fun of, called derogatory names) or relational (spreading rumors, being left out or ostracized).

C. POSITION

Montgomery County Public Schools (MCPS) will implement a program to identify bullying, harassment, or intimidation; implement prevention programs that are proven to be effective, intervene when bullying, harassment, or intimidation occurs; implement intervention strategies; and provide outside referrals if needed. The prohibition of bullying, harassment, or intimidation in schools, and reprisal and retaliation against individuals who report acts of bullying, harassment, or intimidation, as well as consequences and remedial actions, must be included as a part of a systemwide prevention and intervention program. Components of such a program must include:

1. Prevention and Intervention
 - a) Annual professional development for administrators and staff members to increase understanding and awareness of the prevalence, causes, and consequences of bullying, harassment, or intimidation, and to increase the use of research-based strategies, remedial measures, and consequences for preventing bullying, harassment, or intimidation. Professional development also should include how to respond to students who are bullied, students who bully, and students who are bystanders.
 - b) Student involvement in bullying, harassment, or intimidation prevention efforts, such as programs that foster peer support, mutual respect, sensitivity to diversity and culture which encourage students to report incidents of bullying to adults.

- c) Communication and interaction with families and the community to inform parents/guardians about the prevalence, causes, and consequences of bullying, harassment, or intimidation and strategies for supporting their children.
- d) Collaboration with community health and mental health resources to communicate that bullying, harassment, or intimidation is a public health hazard and that health resources are available to students who are bullied, students who bully, and students who are bystanders.
- e) A range of interventions developed to prevent bullying, harassment, or intimidation while ensuring the safety of students who are bullied.

2. Consequences and Remedial Actions

Consequences and remedial actions for persons committing acts of bullying, harassment, or intimidation; for persons engaged in reprisal or retaliation; and for persons found to have made false accusations of bullying should be consistently and fairly applied in accordance with MCPS Regulation JFA-RA, Student Rights and Responsibilities.

3. Procedures for Reporting Acts of Bullying, Harassment, or Intimidation

- a) The system shall provide to schools procedures that are convenient, safe, private, and age-appropriate for reporting acts of bullying, harassment, or intimidation.

- c) Reporting of bullying, harassment, or intimidation incidents shall be encouraged and supported by MCPS. MCPS shall communicate a clear message that reporting will lead to help for students who are bullied, students who bully, and students who are bystanders.

4. Procedures for the Prompt Investigation of Acts of Bullying, Harassment, or Intimidation.

- a) The principal or designee shall promptly investigate all reports of bullying, harassment, or intimidation and implement remedial measures and consequences as appropriate.

- b) School administrators shall promptly notify parents/guardians of students involved in a bullying incident.
 - c) After the investigation has concluded, staff members will conduct individual and private conferences with both the student who was bullied and the student who bullied to determine if the bullying, harassment, or intimidation has continued.
5. Support Services to be Made Available to the Student Who is Bullied, the Student Who Bullies, and Bystanders

If a student expresses a desire to discuss an incident of bullying, harassment, or intimidation with a staff member, the staff member will make an effort to provide the student with a practical, safe, private, and age-appropriate way of doing so.

The system shall maintain and make readily available to students and families a list of support services that are available to students who are bullied, students who bully, and students who are bystanders within both the schools and the community.
