

Linkages to Learning

51 Monroe Street, Suite 1700
Rockville, MD 20850

Shoe Drive

Linkages to Learning, a collaborative initiative between the public and private sectors, provides much needed economic, social, and health services to school age children and their families in 28 Montgomery County public schools.

Remember the joy you felt as a kid when you got a new pair of shoes? Linkages to Learning needs your help to provide kids with new shoes for this school year! Your donations will be going to kids in kindergarten through 12th grade experiencing the difficult and stressful effects of poverty in Montgomery County.

How can you help?

- ✓ Purchase a new pair of shoes (sizes range: children size 10 – adult size 12)
- ✓ Boys' and girls' shoes appreciated!

Did you know...

- There are 5,000 school aged children with siblings living in poverty in Montgomery County?
- Linkages to Learning responds to the urgent needs of children and their families by supplying food, clothing, school supplies, and payment for medical, dental, electric, and gas bills.

Your help is GREATLY appreciated!

For additional information, contact Haifa Peter via email
(Haifa.Peter@montgomerycountymd.gov) or phone (240-777-1291)