

A father beaver, a mother beaver and their four little beavers lived in a home in a lake.

Their home was a little island
with a secret tunnel
that went down into the water.
They were safe on the island.
The bears and the foxes and the great wild cats
could not get them.

