

Our Mission Statement

We, the students of Ms. Howard's class, are respectful students who show good character. We are here to learn, improve and get a good education. We have to help each other by using teamwork. We will get to know each other better, listen to others, and always do our best.

