

Seneca Valley High School's fall play, "The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood" will be performed Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 7:30 p.m. There is also a Saturday matinee at 2:30 p.m. It is a Children's Theatre rendition of the classic story with some fun twists!

Plots, plans, intrigue, lessons about friendship and straight-up-silliness await audiences of all ages in this spin-off which features Robin Hood, Maid Marion, the Merry Men, the Sheriff of Nottingham and others.

A Dinner and a Show are planned for Friday evening, a children's tour and meet-and-greet with the actors will be held after the Saturday matinee, and Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will enjoy discount pricing at the Saturday evening performance. Elementary and middle school students are especially encouraged to attend!

Tickets are $5 if purchased on-line, or $8/adult and $5/child at the door. View svhsdrama.yolasite.com for additional information and to buy tickets. SVHS is located at the intersection of Crystal Rock Blvd. and Middlebrook Road, in Germantown.
