It's time to donate your old books so we can get ready for the Book Swap.
Last year we collected 3000 books!

We need all kinds of gently used books, especially books for middle schoolers.

Drop them off anytime in the Media Center until January 23.
Thanks!
