

THE WRITER'S CENTER

Summer youth workshops

in ROCKVILLE

The Johns Hopkins University
Montgomery County campus
9601 Medical Center Drive, Rockville, MD 20850

HOW 2 WRITE A BETTER COLLEGE APPLICATION ESSAY

Workshop Leader: Diana M. Martin

High school students applying to college will learn tips on what the admission committees look for and how to personalize an essay so it stands out among the rest.

7/20–7/27

Fee: $100 ($87 TWC members)

DOCUMENTARY PRODUCTION

Workshop Leaders: Brandon & Lance Kramer

This workshop walks students through the creative process of making a documentary: from research to visual treatment, production, editing, and distribution.

7/11–7/22

Fee: $525 ($456.75 TWC members)

PLAYWRITING 3D

Workshop Leaders: Zachary Fernebok & Greg Twomey

In this two-week workshop, participants will write their own ten-minute plays, while learning the essential elements of dramatic writing: plot, character, dialogue, and conflict, along with the importance of improving your writing through performing it.

7/11–7/21

Fee: $360 ($313.20 TWC members)

YOUTH WRITING WORKSHOP

Workshop Leader: Kenneth Carroll

A fun writing workshop that provides a safe and nourishing space for writers 12–18 who are looking to improve their writing.

6/28–7/8

Fee: $360 ($313.20 TWC members)

1 DAY PLAYWRITING INTENSIVE

Workshop Leader: Martin Blank

Students will write their own ten-minute plays, while learning the essential elements of dramatic writing: plot, character, dialogue, and conflict, along with the importance of improving your writing through performing it.

6/24

Fee: $135 ($117.45 TWC members)

REGISTER ONLINE AT WRITER.ORG

The Writer's Center is sponsored in part by:

THE WRITER'S
CENTER

4508 Walsh Street
Bethesda, MD 20815
www.writer.org

The Writer's Center gratefully acknowledges assistance received from the Cultural Alliance of Greater Washington's Business Volunteers for the Arts Program, the Cafritz Foundation, and The Max and Victoria Dreyfus Foundation.