

NORTHWOOD HIGH SCHOOL
EARLY COLLEGE SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Parent Permission Form

Date: _____

I, _____ as the parent/guardian of _____ hereby give my consent to allow said student to apply to and attend the University of Maryland, College Park and/or Montgomery College during the summer, fall, and spring of his/her senior year at Northwood High School.

If my student is accepted into the University of Maryland, I also give permission for my student to attend the mandatory Freshman Orientation course being taught at the University of Maryland (location and time not yet set by the University). _____ (initials)

I further understand that since these are not MCPS institutions, I am responsible for all transportation to and from the University of Maryland and/or Montgomery College. Neither Northwood High School nor Montgomery County Public Schools will provide for transportation to or from the college or university. _____ (initials)

I understand that my student is considered to be a student of the institution in which he/she enrolls. My student is, therefore, subject to all penalties and benefits as such at the respective institutions. I understand that I am responsible for all fees and tuition. If I receive financial aid, I am responsible for repayment of that aid should my student withdraw or fail the course according to the University of Maryland's or Montgomery College's standard policy. _____ (initials)

I also understand that if my student enrolls in one of these programs, my student will receive an abbreviated schedule at Northwood High School to accommodate the college or university course. I understand that my student CANNOT be on Northwood's campus at any time that he/she is not scheduled for a course or in a scheduled activity at Northwood High School. I understand that neither Northwood High School nor MCPS will provide supervision of my student at any time that they are not scheduled for a class at Northwood High School. _____ (initials)

Further, I understand that if my student enrolls in the program, he/she is considered a student of the institution in which he/she enrolls. It is my responsibility to contact the institution AFTER final acceptance into the program to determine the institution's policy concerning special education services and not that of Northwood High School, nor Montgomery County Public Schools. Students receiving special education services at Northwood High School may or may not receive those accommodations at the university or college, which is solely at the discretion of those institutions. _____ (initials)
