

Responsibility

Responsibility is having a certain task to complete; being dependable and accountable for your words/actions; being reliable by making sure the job assigned is completed with effort and done on time.