Homework!

Excellent job!

A

Dear Travilah Students,

As a student myself, I don't like homework because I'd rather play. However, I realize having homework can mean a lot to my future. Doing homework helps me review what I have learned. It also helps me to prepare for tests.

I want to go to a good college, and I know that I will need to have a good knowledge base. Homework will provide me with the opportunity to strengthen these skills. With these skills I will be able to be successful in college. I will also be able to be influential in the world.

A good knowledge base is developed primarily through reading, writing, and math. Math skills, starting with addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division, teach good, clear thinking. Reading develops imagination and a rich vocabulary. Imagination and vocabulary can help with writing and they also give a bird's eye view of the world.

Doing homework also gives me a chance to go over things with my parents. Sometimes, I don't quite understand everything in school due to limited time. This also helps me be better prepared for
