

SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES 2009

Websites to explore:

<http://enrichmentalley.com/>

It lists Summer, school year, and gap year programs and includes reviews.

<http://www.engineeringedu.com/summercamps.html>

<http://www.studenteducationprograms.com/>

<http://www.petersons.com/summerop/code/ssector.asp>

http://www.dedicatedengineers.org/Resources/summer_programs.htm

FREE! COLLEGE OF WILLIAM & MARY Summer Science & Research Program (STAR) June 24-July 21, 2009 Pre-college enrichment program for rising juniors from disadvantaged backgrounds introduces students to the world of science, research & technology. FULLY PAID four-week program, including housing, meals, books & recreation by a grant from Howard Hughes Medical Institute. Must have two recommendations.. Application deadline: May 1, 2009. Questions: Vernon Hurte, Ph.D. 757-221-2300 or email: vjhurt@wm.edu. Brochures & application can be downloaded from the web at <http://www.wm.edu/multiculturalaffairs/starprogram.php>.

FREE!! Bryant University's Institute for Leadership Development offers B.U.I.L.D., a business career exploration program for high rising juniors who are African American, Latino, Asian or Native American. Students must have a 2.7+ cumulative GPA and have completed Algebra II by the end of the junior year. The one week program is from June 14 – 19. To apply, go to <http://admission.bryant.edu/admissions/build.asp> Deadline is March 27.

FREE!! Bryant University and PriceWaterhouseCoopers are offering a one week summer camp for juniors interested in accounting. This program is open to African American or Hispanic juniors with a minimum 2.7 cumulative GPA. Students must have completed Algebra II by the end of their junior year. Applications can be found at <http://admission.bryant.edu/admissions/pwc/> Deadline to apply is March 27.

FREE!! Caltech's Young Engineering and Science Scholars for outstanding underrepresented students in grades 10 and 11 interested in science and engineering. The program runs from June 21 – July 11. Deadline to apply is February 27. <http://www.yess.caltech.edu/YESSapplication.html> With the exception of transportation, the program is entirely free.

FREE!! Microsoft Summer Camp for Girls Grades 10-12 (DigiGirlz High Tech Camps). This is a three to five day experience providing girls with a better understanding of what a career in technology is all about. It is free. Two essays are required. Applications are available online at www.microsoft.com/about/diversity/programs/camps.msp. Applications are due May 30, 2009.

FREE!! Delaware State University will run the “Girls Exploration in Math and Science (GEMS). This program will engage 20 female students in an intensive 3-week exploration of math, biology, and information technology, with research activities. Program is held in July. <http://gems.desu.edu> Deadline is April 17.

City Year, Washington DC (AmeriCorps) - Graduating seniors who are not sure what they want to do after high school should consider applying for a paid community service position with City Year, Washington, DC., a group of 17-24 year olds committed to full-time service for ten months in the Washington, DC community. Benefits include:

living stipend ($200 per week), health care coverage, free metro pass, and $4,725 educational scholarship. For more info: www.cityyear.org or email: cmurphy@cityyear.org/dc or call: 202-776-7780, Amanda Seligman. Recruitment open houses will be held once a month at their headquarters: 918 U Street, NW, 2nd floor, Washington, DC 20001.

ACTIONQuest offers worldwide sailing, scuba diving, community service and marine biology camps for teens. <http://www.actionquest.com/>

Acting Abroad- Train, Learn, Act in France from June 27 – July 23, 2009. For more information visit <http://www.actingabroad.com/index.html> or call 800-670-2651

Adventures Cross-Country (ARCC) has offered innovative experiences for teenagers in community service, language, and leadership for the past 26 years. Visit <http://www.adventurescrosscountry.com/> or call 800-767-2722

The University of Alabama offers a Capstone Business Leadership Academy.

The 10 day summer program is designed for academically exceptional seniors interested in pursuing a career in business. Go to www.cba.ua.edu/summeracademy for more info.

Alfred University offers summer programs in entrepreneurial leadership, swimming, creative writing, computer engineering, theater, equestrian camp, astronomy, women's leadership. For more information visit <http://www.alfred.edu/summer/>

AIFS Summer Advantage offers summer programs in China, England, France, Italy, Russia and Spain. Students can experience university life before they enroll in college. Excursions and extracurricular activities are included. <http://www.summeradvantage.com/>

AIU High School Diplomats brings American and Japanese students together at Princeton University for a 10-day cross-cultural and educational exchange program. All current sophomores and juniors are encouraged to apply. There is no cost to the participants. Japanese is not a pre-requisite. It runs from July 29 – August 8 th. Applications must be postmarked by Jan. 7th. Visit <http://www.highschooldiplomats.com/> for more information

American Collegiate Adventures where you can choose the summer you deserve. Customize your summer, choosing from a large selection of courses, sports, language study, cultural immersion, internship and community service opportunities. Programs are offered in Wisconsin, Spain and Italy. Visit www.acasummer.com or call 800-509-7867

American University School of Communication offers high school students an opportunity to explore the world of communication through hands-on courses offered from June 16 to July 18. The program is designed for students who have an interest in film, journalism, multimedia and communication. For more information visit soc.american.edu/highschool.html

American University School of International Service offers a summer program for rising sophomores and juniors to enhance their preparation for college and a career in international service. <http://www.american.edu/sis/precollege/>

ASA Summersion offers college prep and cultural immersion programs. Call 800-752-2250 or visit <http://www.asaprograms.com/>

Berklee College of Music Summer Programs offers one-five week programs taught by members of the Berklee College of Music faculty. For more information visit <http://www.berklee.edu/>

Boston College Summer Experience Program. Spend 6 weeks at Boston College taking college courses and earning college credit. It is open to highly motivated rising seniors with outstanding academic records. For more information call 617-552-3800 or email bce@bc.edu

Boston University Summer Term offers a high school honors program, a summer challenge program, and a research internship in science and engineering. The High School Honors Program offers talented rising seniors a rich environment for personal growth through academic achievement. The Summer Challenge Program is an opportunity to preview college life and course-work in a non-credit setting. The Research Internship offers rising seniors the opportunity to conduct scientific research under the guidance of a faculty mentor. www.bu.edu/summer/highschool

Broadreach offers educational summer adventures for teenagers 13-18 years old. Their academic adventure division, Academic Treks, offers college-accredited programs in marine sciences, cultural studies and language immersion in unique destinations around the world. Visit www.gobroadreach.com or www.academictreks.com

The Bronfman Youth Fellowships in Israel is for outstanding Jewish students who are 11th graders. The program's goal is to increase understanding and tolerance among the different Jewish denominations. The all expense paid program runs from June 29 through August 5, 2009 in Israel followed by a fall seminar in NYC. Fellowship awards are based on merit. Go to www.bronfman.org for more info and to apply.

Career Explorations offers high school students the opportunity to explore career fields in four and five week internships in Boston and New York. Visit www.ceinternships.com

Carleton College offers a summer writing program from July 12-18 for college-bound juniors with strong reading and writing skills. www.carleton.edu/summer or call 866-767-2275.

Carnegie Mellon: June 28 - August 8, 2009, Deadline: May 1, 2009 Discover Carnegie Mellon. Summer residential experience for HS juniors or seniors on campus for six weeks. Programs: Advanced Placement, Architecture, Art, Design, Drama & Music; National High School Game Academy. To learn more: www.cmu.edu/enrollment/precollege, 412-268-2082 or email: precollege@andrew.cmu.edu.

The University of Chicago offers a wide variety of unique programs for high school students. Students may choose from an array of undergraduate courses to take for credit. For more information visit <http://summer.uchicago.edu>

China Institute -Summer Study in China 2008 offers high school students the opportunity to receive intensive language training while being immersed in Chinese society and culture in Beijing. The program runs from July 6th – August 24th. The application deadline is February 11, 2008. Scholarships are available. Visit www.chinasummerstudy.org or call 212-744-8014

Choate Rosemary Hall Summer Program offers two, four or five week residential programs. Students leave the program with better time-management and study skills. Check out their website at www.choate.edu/summerprograms

Clemson University offers a summer enrichment program for high school students interested in science, engineering and architecture. Go to www.clemson.edu/summerscience for more info.

Columbia Union College offers a Capital Summer Session from July 21 – Aug. 7, 2008. It is open to students of the class of 2008 and 2009. Earn college credit and explore DC. Earn free college credit with classes in Communication, History, Psychology and Religion. For more information call 800-835-4212 or email css@cuc.edu

Columbia University offers Summer High School Programs in New York City and Barcelona. Columbia offers pre-college enrichment programs for students entering grades 9-12. These programs are renowned for their academic rigor and instructional excellence. The Barcelona Experience offers students entering grades 11 -12 the opportunity to examine history, art and urban development of Barcelona Spain. Visit www.ce.columbia.edu/hs2009

Concordia Language Villages offers a summer language immersion camp for students 7-18 years old. For more information visit www.ConcordiaLanguageVillages.org

Cornell Summer College offers two three-week, three-credit programs for talented sophomores, juniors, and seniors from around the world. Students take fascinating courses with leading Cornell faculty members. Earn college credit and experience college life www.summercollege.cornell.edu. Application deadline is May 2.

The Curie Academy is a one-week residential program designed for high school girls who excel in math and science and want to learn more about careers in engineering. Students must have completed at least algebra II and have a minimum GPA of 3.0. For more information and application visit www.engineering.cornell.edu/curie. Application deadline is April 15, 2008

Cushing Academy – open to students from ages 12-18 who want to enhance their skills or advance their knowledge in a variety of programs from college prep to portfolio prep. The programs run from July 5 – Aug. 8. Visit www.cushing.org

The University of Dayton women in engineering summer camp from July 12-17, 2009. Visit <http://engineering2.udayton.edu/wie>

The University of Delaware Summer College for current sophomores and juniors. Live the life of a college student at the center of the East Coast. Take freshman-level college courses for UD credit while living in state-of-the-art residence halls. For more information and an application visit www.udel.edu/summercollege

Duke University Talent Identification Program offers rigorous and exciting educational opportunities to academically talented high school students. There is a Pre-College Program, Institute Programs, and a Domestic and International Field Studies Program. Early application deadline is February 23, 2009. For more information visit www.tip.duke.edu or call 919-681-4182

ERVK The Eleanor Roosevelt Center at Val-Kill offers a Girls' Leadership Workshop program to educate, empower, and activate adolescent girls to become the next generation of social justice leaders. It is open to girls entering 10 th or 11 th grade in the fall of 2009. Deadline to apply is February 13. www.ervk.org or call 845-229-5302

The Experiment in International Living runs thoughtful cross-cultural summer abroad programs that empower young people to become responsible global citizens and engaged youth diplomats. For more information email experiment@worldlearning.org or call 800-345-2929

4 Star Camps at the University of Virginia and the University of Mary Washington offers programs in golf and tennis. www.4starcamps.com or call 800-334-7827

Furman University's Summer Scholars Program offers a variety of one to 2 week programs for rising juniors or seniors where students actively participate in classes and experience college life. Courses include Graphic Design, Theater, Creative Writing and Psychology. Deadline date is June 13. Go to www.furman.edu/summerscholars

George Washington University Summer Scholars Program is a six-week residential program for rising seniors giving them the opportunity to earn college credit, access university resources, and preview an authentic college experience. 10-day minicourses are offered to rising 10 th -12 th graders in Law & Evidence, Photojournalism, Election Politics and Biomedical Engineering. www.summerscholars.gwu.edu or call 202-242-6802

GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY Science & Engineering Apprenticeship program (summer) This program places academically talented H.S. students (at least 16 yrs old, sophomores/ juniors) with interest in science & math in Dept. of Defense laboratories for an 8-wk period over the summer. This is an invaluable experience in the world of scientific research, with hands-on exposure to scientific & engineering practices not available in the HS environment. It is a paid apprenticeship ($2,000) and the students are assigned a scientist or engineer as their mentor. To apply online or get more information about the program: <http://www.usaeop.com>. Students must submit their transcript (minimum GPA 3.0) and teacher recommendation to the program director for consideration and daily transportation is the student's responsibility. Program runs from June 22 - August 14, 2009. Applications due: Feb. 27, 2009

Georgetown University's Summer at Georgetown University offers engaging courses that will help students advance their preparation for success in college. Courses include Summer College, College Prep Program, Law and Society, Journalism, Leadership and Ethics, Sports Industry Management, International Relations, and more. Students are admitted on a rolling basis; admission is competitive and early applications are encouraged. Limited partial tuition scholarships are available. www.georgetown.edu

Georgetown University Pathways to Success invites current sophomores and juniors who have a 3.5 GPA or higher and a genuine interest in science to their summer mini-semester in the health sciences. The program runs from June 21-July 12. Students who enroll at the of their sophomore year are expected to return the following summer as a rising senior. Interested students should contact Francesca Tripodi at 202-687-8941 or fbt2@georgetown.edu

Hollinsummer offers a two-week program that gives rising sophomore, junior and senior girls a taste of college life. It is from July 12-24th. <http://www.hollins.edu/specprog/>

Indiana University of Pennsylvania – Robert E. Cook Honors College is a place where talented high school students from across the country come together for intensive academic exploration and a glimpse of college life. It is from July 12 – 25th. www.iup.edu/honors

Intern Exchange International offers internships and media and design workshops for high school students in London from July 2-July 31, 2009. Internships are available in the fields of banking, law, medical research and more. The media and design workshops are in the fields of fashion and design, journalism, photography and more. Earn 3 college credits for the workshops. For more info, go to www.interexchange.com

International Seminar Series Service Learning in Paris offers a program of cultural immersion through community service from July 1-26. Visit www.study-serve.org

Johnson & Wales University Career Explorations 2009 offers 3 day summer programs for students entering their junior or senior year to explore careers in business, hospitality, technology, and culinary arts. Class size is limited. Early registration suggested. Go to www.jwu.edu for more info.

Julian Krinsky Academic Enrichment Camp is an opportunity to sample the excitement and challenge of college life. There are 1, 2 and 3-week sessions for students ages 13 - 17. It is at Bryn Mawr College, U Penn, Haverford, and Princeton. www.jkcp.com

Kenyon College offers the Young Writers Workshop, a 2 week creative writing adventure for high school students from June 28-July 11 or July 19 – August 1. www.kenyonreview.org Deadline is March 1.

Lewis & Clark Fir Acres Workshop in Writing and Thinking from June 28- July 10. Visit www.lclark.edu/org/firacres

LIFEWORKS offers global service learning for teens which combines service projects with cultural immersion, travel, and outdoor adventure. For more information visit www.lifeworks-international.com

Marist College offers a pre-college program for rising juniors and seniors. Seven institutes are scheduled for July 5 – 18 in the fields of business, the environment, fashion, gaming, sports communication, creative writing and criminal justice. Students will earn 3 college credits. www.marist.edu/summerinstitutes/

University of Maryland, College Park: Women in Engineering, E2@UMD, July 12-18 or July 19-25; rising juniors and seniors. Go to www.wie.umd.edu/precollege or call 301-405-3283

Maryland Leadership Workshops at Washington College in Chestertown, Maryland brings together accomplished student leaders and students with leadership potential from around the state of Maryland to network and develop the skills necessary to succeed in all facets of their lives. This year's program will be August 2 – August 8. Register before May 1, $550, after May 1, $595. www.mlw.org

Maryland Summer Centers for Gifted and Talented Students- Application deadline is April 15, 2009. Visit www.marylandpublicschools.org/summercenters

University of Maryland Young Scholars Program targets rising juniors and seniors who have a strong academic record and a desire to excel to experience college life while earning three academic credits. 14 courses are offered for three weeks from July 12 – 31, 2009. Visit www.ysp.umd.edu/pr

Mediterranean Studies Program offers a program in Portugal Language, History and Culture from July 1– July 17. www.mediterraneanstudies.net

MICA Summer 2009 offers a pre-college studio residency program in Baltimore from June 27- July 25 or in Tuscany from June 20-July 11 or July 11-August 1. Visit <http://www.mica.edu/PROGRAMS/cs/precollege/> or call 410-225-2219

University of Michigan School of Art & Design offers a two-week residential program for high school freshmen, sophomores and juniors. It will give participants a taste of college-level studio art and design and a head start on the admissions process. The program runs from July 13 to July 26. Application deadline is April 1, 2009. <http://www.art-design.umich.edu/summerprograms.php>

Montgomery College presents “How to Succeed in College” for high school seniors who want to prepare for success at Montgomery College. This is a two-week orientation program earning one credit at MC. Visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/Departments/studevrv/htsic

Montgomery County Youth Programs offers enrichment programs for students in K-12. Visit www.montgomerycollege.edu/youth

Mount Holyoke College – take the lead program develops leadership skills in young women. It is a two-week residential program. Learn more at www.mtholyoke.edu/takethelead

Northfield Mount Hermon School offers five different summer programs: College Prep for students entering grades 10-12, a Middle School Program, English as a second language, Spain Summer Abroad and New Zealand Summer Abroad. For more information email summer_school@nmhschool.org

Northwestern University offers a college prep summer program for students who like academic challenges and the experience of real college. The program is six to eight weeks. Students must apply by April 10 th. Visit www.northwestern.edu/collegeprep or call 847-467-6703

Norwich University offers a Future Leader Camp for students interested in developing their leadership skills. Applicants must have a 2.5+GPA. Two 2 week programs. www.norwich.edu/admissions/summerprograms

Oxbridge Academic Programs offers outstanding academic programs in Europe for top students completing grades 10-12. The program is designed to immerse students in two academic subjects or creative arts while taking advantage of the inexhaustible cultural resources of Oxford, Cambridge, Spain or Paris. www.oxbridgeprograms.com or call 800-828-8349

Oxford Royale Academy Broadening Horizons offers 16-18 year olds exceptional academic and cultural programs on the campus of the University of Oxford. www.oxford-royale.co.uk

Oxford University's Advanced Studies Summer Course 2009 offers outstanding academic programs for top students who are aiming for a competitive college. www.oasp.ac.uk

St. Hugh's College offers a 3 week program for high school students on the campus of the University of Oxford. Topics range from art/architecture to zoology. www.sthughs-summerschool.info

University of Pennsylvania offers programs in Leadership in the Business World (<http://undergrad.wharton.upenn.edu/precollege/lbw/>), Art & Architecture (www.jkcp.com) and Management & Technology (www.upenn.edu/fisher/summer/index.html).

Phillips Academy Summer Session for five weeks students study, socialize and live in a multicultural community which is ethnically, racially, geographically and economically diverse. This program is designed to foster excellence in all disciplines associated with the liberal arts tradition. For more information call 978-749-4400 or visit www.andover.edu/summersession

Penn Engineering offers intensive three-week courses in cutting-edge technology for talented high school students. For more information visit www.seas.upenn.edu/saast

Phillips Exeter Academy Summer School - challenge yourself academically while living in a dynamic, multicultural community from July 5- Aug 8th http://www.exeter.edu/summer_programs/9389.aspx or call 603-777-3488.

RASSIAS offers language programs abroad. For information visit www.RASSIAS.com

Sarah Lawrence College offers both three week and 5 week residential courses for high school students. Courses include Theatre, Visual Arts, Poetry, Screenwriting and Writing. Students in each class will have two one-on-one meetings, Sarah Lawrence style, with their instructor. Go to www.sarahlawrence.edu/highschool

SACI – Studio Art Centers International in Florence provides a distinct academic and artistic curriculum that immerses students in Italian culture. For more information visit www.saci-florence.org

School of Visual Arts Pre-College Programs are designed for high school students who want to enhance their creative skills, develop a portfolio and earn 3 college credits over a three week session from July 6 through July 24, 2009. A limited number of need/merit-base scholarships are available. To register and for more info, go to www.sva.edu.

Snow Farm is a hands-on intensive High School Summer In Art program where students can become involved in the art world and be a part of a small community of people joined by a common interest in creativity and each other. www.snowfarm.org

University of Southern California offers a four-week residential program that brings together students from across the country for a taste of college life. Choose from 20 academic seminars each offered for 3 university elective credits. Visit www.usc.edu/summer

Stanford University High School Summer College is open to students 16 years of age and older. Students enjoy a wide variety of cultural and social events while taking college courses. The session runs from June 20 – August 16 with an application deadline of April 26, 2009. <http://summer.stanford.edu/>

Summer Discovery at UCLA, UC-Santa Barbara, UC-San Diego, Michigan, Georgetown, University of Pennsylvania, Northeastern, Cambridge, and in Spain, Italy, and Costa Rica offers a real college experience at some of the most prestigious universities. It allows students to challenge themselves academically, as well as experience college life and personal growth. Visit www.summerdiscovery.com.

Summer Institute for The Gifted offers a residential program for 4th through 11th graders at Amherst, Bryn Mawr, Princeton, University of Texas-Austin, UC Berkeley, UCLA, Michigan, Emory and Vassar. 2009 brochures are available at 866-303-4744 or visit www.giftedstudy.com

Summer Study Programs at Penn State, University of Colorado and The Sorbonne offer enrichment programs for students who want to get the total college experience. For more information visit www.summerstudy.com

Susquehanna University offers the Leadership Institute for Entrepreneurship (LIFE) a week-long hands-on introduction to the decision-making components of entrepreneurship. A scholarship provided by Toyota reduces the cost of the program to $495. Apply at www.susqu.edu/life Deadline is June 8.

Susquehanna University offers a summer program for talented writers. A portfolio is required with the application. Go to www.susqu.edu/writers for more info.

Tanglewood Institute (Boston University) 2009 Summer Programs. Young Artists Program for students age 15-18 in orchestra, voice, wind ensemble, piano, composition and harp seminar. Tanglewood Institute offers workshops for students 15 or older in flute, oboe, clarinet, trumpet, horn, trombone, percussion, string quartet and double bass. <http://www.bu.edu/cfa/music/tanglewood/program/> or call 800-643-4796.

United States Air Force Academy Summer Seminar – They will host three sessions this year, June 3-7, 9-13 and 15-19. This is a unique opportunity to see a realistic picture of cadet life. At the end of the week, students will have a very clear understanding of the commitment necessary to attend the U.S. Air Force Academy. To apply <http://www.academyadmissions.com/admissions/summerseminar/index.php> Deadline to apply is February 28. Cost is $325 for the week.

U.S. Coast Guard Academy Summer Program (AIM) - Free program to experience the challenging Coast Guard life, from the classroom to the engineering lab, on the playing fields and on the water. The minimum GPA required is 3.0, Average SAT score 1250 critical reading & math. Applications for AIM are due in early April and there is no obligation to join the Coast Guard. Contact info: 1-860-444-8503, www.admissions.uscga.edu/aim or email: aim@uscga.edu.

United States Military Academy Summer Leaders Seminar –They will host two sessions this year, May 30-June 5 and June 6 - 12. This is an opportunity for juniors to gain a better understanding of the academic, physical and leadership-development programs at a service academy. To apply visit <http://admissions.usma.edu> before April 1, 2009.

United States Naval Academy Summer Seminar 2009 – They will host one 6 day session for juniors to experience all aspects of the Naval Academy including the academic program and midshipman life. To apply visit www.usna.edu/Admissions beginning February 1 of your junior year. All applicants will be notified of their selection by April 15.

US Performing Arts Camps offers programs for students ages 11-20 in disciplines of acting, animation, film, music, screenwriting, theatre, voice, and more. To request a catalogue go to usperformingarts.com or call 888-497-3553

Vanderbilt Summer Academy offers one-week, two-week, and three-week sessions featuring challenging courses taught in university classrooms and laboratories by Vanderbilt faculty and graduate students.
www.PTY.VANDERBILT.EDU

Virginia Tech's Center for the Enhancement of Engineering Diversity is sponsoring Computers and Technology at Virginia Tech (C-Tech2) from June 28 to July 11 for rising junior and senior girls. Deadline is March 20. Go to www.ctech2.eng.vt.edu to apply.

Visions Service Adventures offers high school students ages 14 to 18 opportunities for ambitious service work and cross-cultural immersion at home and abroad. Visit www.VisionsServiceAdventures.com or call 717-567-7313.

Washington University Summer Scholars offers two sessions of credit courses beginning June 7 and July 12th. Open to current sophomores and juniors with a B+ GPA and 1800 SAT or 180 PSAT. For more information and application materials visit <http://ucollege.wustl.edu/programs/highschool> or call 866-209-0691.

Weizmann Institute of Science offers an intensive program that allows students the unique opportunity to participate in the ongoing research of the Weizmann Institute in Rehovot, Israel in July. For an application visit www.weizmann.ac.il/young/english

William Paterson University offers academically enriching and fun experiences for middle and high school students. For more information http://www.wpunj.edu/cpe/Youth_Programs/default.cfm

Windsor Mountain Student Travel focuses on creating learning experiences that use the world as a classroom. They help students discover the skills they need to carry personal missions forward as they become responsible global citizens. www.WindsorMountain.org

Wolfeboro offers summer boarding school. For more information www.wolfeboro.org

WPI frontiers offer a summer program for soon-to-be-juniors and seniors from July 12 to 24th. For more information visit www.wpi.edu/+frontiers