

UDL and Screen-Casting

How can capturing screen activity and your voice in video be used to promote UDL in your classroom and school?

- Instructional uses
  - UDL: Options for Representation in SS8
- Support collaborative planning and staff development
  - HIAT Help Blog example of informal video
- Screen -Casting Tools
  - ActivInpsire Screen Recorder
  - Online (with easier download option): Screen-Casto-Matic
  - Online: Screenr

Tools for Screen-Casting – Feature Matrix

Features	ActivInpsire Screen Recorder  Screen Recorder	Screen-Casto-Matic 	Screenr
Web-based	No (software)	Yes	Yes
Resulting Video File	Video file (.avi file)	Host on web or download file (.mp4)	Host on web or download file (.mp4)
Cost / Sign-up	Free At school or with free full version of ActivInpsire at home (not available on trial version for home)	Free No sign-up unless you want to have video hosted on website, e.g. Screen-Casto-Matic or YouTube	Free Sign-up required , can use existing Gmail or Yahoo acct)
Sharing	Share video file and upload to EIC/YouTube/other video site	Download and share file without signing up Share on YouTube or other video sharing site that requires sign-up	Need to sign-in to share online (or to download)
Can students use this to create their own screen-cast?	Yes Using software at school	Yes Can create screen-cast without signing up and download file	No. Requires student sign-up which is against MCPS policy