Cecily's Advocacy Conference

Saturday, February 29

8:30 am - 2:00 pm

mcleanschool.org/Conference2020

Each year, McLean School invites both nationally celebrated and community-based experts on learning and development for a symposium highlighting new research and best practices in fostering growth for K-12 students. Now in its 11th year, Cecily's Advocacy Conference has grown as a key resource in the Washington metro area, attracting an audience of over 300 parents, educators, and child development professionals.

Queen Bees & Masterminds: Navigating Friendships, Social Conflicts, and Popularity

9:00-10:15 am

New York Times bestseller author Queen Bees and Wannabes: Helping Your Daughter Survive Cliques, Gossip, Boyfriends, and Other Realities of Adolescence; Masterminds and Wingmen: Helping Our Boys Cope with Schoolyard Power, Locker-Room Tests, Girlfriends, and the New Rules of Boy World pulls back the curtain on what's really going on between boys and girls and why they can be so reluctant to ask adults for help. She'll share how boys' and girls' social group dynamics influence their interactions and offer step-by-step advice on how to teach young people to treat each other with dignity. She'll also give common-sense suggestions about how to deal with the frequent struggles between children and their parents – from video games and social networking to communication breakdowns.
