

READING RESPONSE JOURNALS

- What do you think of the characters and their actions?
- How can you relate to the story, the characters and their problems?
- What techniques does the author use to keep you interested and make you keep reading?
- What reasonable predictions can you make for future chapters? Evaluate former predictions.
- Comment on author's style...What makes it special or different?
- If you were the author or character, what might you do differently? Give reasons for your answer.
- Comment on setting...time...place? Why is it significant?
- What unique words or phrases are used in this chapter? What do they mean?
- What new ideas and events are highlighted in this chapter? How do they relate to the main problem?
- Re-read your response. Be sure all your comments are supported by evidence from the story.

READING RESPONSE JOURNALS

- What do you think of the characters and their actions?
- How can you relate to the story, the characters and their problems?
- What techniques does the author use to keep you interested and make you keep reading?
- What reasonable predictions can you make for future chapters? Evaluate former predictions.
- Comment on author's style...What makes it special or different?
- If you were the author or character, what might you do differently? Give reasons for your answer.
- Comment on setting...time...place? Why is it significant?
- What unique words or phrases are used in this chapter? What do they mean?
- What new ideas and events are highlighted in this chapter? How do they relate to the main problem?
- Re-read your response. Be sure all your comments are supported by evidence from the story.

READING RESPONSE JOURNALS

- What do you think of the characters and their actions?
- How can you relate to the story, the characters and their problems?
- What techniques does the author use to keep you interested and make you keep reading?
- What reasonable predictions can you make for future chapters? Evaluate former predictions.
- Comment on author's style...What makes it special or different?
- If you were the author or character, what might you do differently? Give reasons for your answer.
- Comment on setting...time...place? Why is it significant?
- What unique words or phrases are used in this chapter? What do they mean?
- What new ideas and events are highlighted in this chapter? How do they relate to the main problem?
- Re-read your response. Be sure all your comments are supported by evidence from the story.