

Quince Orchard Theatre 2014-2015 Season

The school's productions are open to the entire student body and attract talents from performers, builders, painters, costumers, make-up artists, and anyone with an interest in theatre. Students are also welcome to take theatre classes that integrate the program with their daily schedule. We also rely heavily on staff and parent volunteers to make our shows a success.

QO Theatre Patron Form

Ticket sales alone cannot cover the cost of producing our shows. We depend on patron donations, program ads, silent auctions, tee shirt and flower sales, and student activity fees to supplement the expense, as they are our most effective forms of fundraising. The average play costs around $10,000 to produce; the average musical, $30,000.

The support and encouragement we receive from the community – through volunteering, purchasing an ad in the playbill, becoming a Patron, or being part of the audience – is critical to our program. Your contribution is deeply valued and much appreciated.

If you would like to be a patron, please return the following information:
