

How did we get from this.....to this?

Welcome to the IB European and Middle East History course!

- It is a two-year program and successful completion will be part of earning an IB diploma.
- Both years are necessary to earn the MCPS Modern World History credit for graduation.
- Students will
 - acquire and understand historical knowledge from different cultures,
 - develop an understanding of history as a discipline,
 - gain an international awareness and understanding of people living in a variety of places,
 - understand the present by linking it to past events,
 - use and communicate historical knowledge and understanding, and
 - develop an everlasting appreciation for history.

How did we get from here.....to here?