

Introducing IB English Language and Literature, a Group 1 course which adds diversity to our SVHS offerings of English courses. IB English Language and Literature will prepare students for advanced studies in the English language and in texts, including great works of literature.

The IB English Language and Literature course will:

- 1. introduce students to a range of texts from different periods, styles and genres
- 2. develop in students the ability to engage in close, detailed analysis of individual texts and make relevant connections
 - 3. develop the students' powers of expression, both in oral and written communication
- 4. encourage students to recognize the importance of the contexts in which texts are written and received
- 5. encourage, through the study of texts, an appreciation of the different perspectives of people from other cultures, and how these perspectives construct meaning
 - 6. encourage students to appreciate the formal, stylistic and aesthetic qualities of texts
 - 7. promote in students an enjoyment of, and lifelong interest in, language and literature. Language A: language and literature aims
- 8. develop in students an understanding of how language, culture and context determine the ways in which meaning is constructed in texts
- 9. encourage students to think critically about the different interactions between text, audience and purpose.
