

Rosa Parks

Math Department

Mission Statement

The Rosa Parks Math Department believes students will be able to make their thinking visible through student-centered discourse and written claims with text-based evidence. Students will demonstrate growth and mastery and feel comfortable taking risks while building relationships with peers/teachers and engaging in equitable instruction.