

Cultural Bingo

Instructions:

Work in your team to get bingo.

A team wins by filling out the entire bingo sheet.

What is injera?	What is Kwanzaa?	What is a Bar or Bat Mitzvah?	What is a quinceañera?
What is Ramadan?	Name a culture in which young people call most adults Uncle or Aunt as a sign of respect?	What is the holiday Carnival? Name some countries or regions this is celebrated.	What is a Step Team?
What is the Blarney Stone?	What is a samosa?	Why do people eat black eyed peas for New Years?	Name two cultures that celebrate the New Year other than January 1 st ?
In which religion do most adult men keep their heads covered?	What is a pupusa? Where does it come from?	What is Lumpia? Where does it come from?	What is a hijab?

Cultural Bingo

What is injera? A spongy, pancake-like Ethiopian flat bread. The bread serves as plate, utensils, and food.	What is Kwanzaa? A week-long holiday honoring African heritage. It is observed from December 26 to January 1 each year and highlights 1 principle per day. It features activities such as candle-lighting and libations ending with a feast and gift giving.	What is a Bar or Bat Mitzvah? The initiation ceremony which occurs when a Jewish boy (Bat Mitzvah) or Girl (Bar Mitzvah) takes on adult responsibilities in Judaism.	What is a quinceañera? A coming-of-age celebration that is held on the fifteenth birthday of a young Hispanic woman.
What is Ramadan? A Muslim period of daytime (from dawn to dusk) fasting and contemplation which lasts for about a month. It honors the transmission of the Qur'an to the prophet Muhammad.	Name a culture in which young people call most adults Uncle or Aunt as a sign of respect? African-American Somali Hispanic	What is the holiday Carnival? Name some countries or regions this is celebrated. A celebration that takes place in mid-February, before Lent, in which people feast, hold parades, and dress in costume. It is celebrated in Brazil, Venice, Trinidad and Tobago and New Orleans (Mardi Gras).	What is a Step Team? A group of individuals who “step”—a unique dance tradition created by African American college students that involves using the body as an instrument to create rhythms and sounds through a combination of footsteps, claps and spoken word.
What is the Blarney Stone? It is a stone located in Cork, Ireland. People come to kiss the stone in hopes of gaining more eloquent speech. One must lean backwards to kiss it upside down, with the help of someone else to hold his/her feet.	What is a samosa? A deep-fried South Asian pastry stuffed with spiced vegetables or meat, usually triangular in shape.	Why do people eat black eyed peas for New Years? For good luck	Name two cultures that celebrate the New Year other than January 1st? Chinese, Persian, Vietnamese, Thai, Cambodian, Tibetan, Laotian, Sinhalese, Bengali, Ethiopian, Jewish
In which religion do most adult men keep their heads covered? Sikh (Followers of this religion, which is based in India, wear a turban to cover their uncut hair)	What is a pupusa? Where does it come from? Pupusas are thick corn tortillas stuffed with cheese, beans or meat. The pupusa originated in El Salvador, but it is also	What is Lumpia? Where does it come from? A type of eggroll that comes from The Philippines and Indonesia	What is a hijab? The head covering worn by Muslim women, meant to show modesty.