Students remain with their homeroom teacher for whole group reading instruction. Some students may receive additional instruction from other support staff.

In the afternoon, students will participate in a rotation for social studies (Mrs. Derr), science (Ms. McCord) and writing (Mrs. DeNisco). The rotation schedule will be posted the 4th grade website.

Communication

Monthly Grade Level Newsletter (Posted on the 4th grade website or hard copy distributed by parent request on the first Friday of the month)

*Newsletter includes curriculum news, reminders, important dates, special projects, and other important updates.

Friday Reports

Students will receive a weekly report documenting missing assignments. Missing homework assignments listed should be completed and returned the following Monday. Missing classwork needs to be completed at school. Students should arrange a time with their teacher to make up the work as soon as possible. Friday Reports MUST be signed and returned on Mondays. In the event that there is no school on a Friday or that teachers are preparing report cards, there will be no Friday Reports.

Friday Folders

Folders will come home each week containing graded student work and flyers from the office. The envelopes should be signed and returned each Monday. Please review the graded work with your children.

Homework

Students will record all assignments in their student planner. You can also go to the BE website and check for daily assignments.

Planners

Planners will show recorded homework assignments and can be used for parent/teacher communication. The planner should be signed daily as part of your child's homework.

Email

Please feel free to email any of the fourth grade teachers with any questions or concerns that you may have.
