INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

November 4, 2011

Dear Parents:

This year's Winter Concert takes place on Thursday, January 26, 2012. The Spring Concert is on Thursday, May 31, 2012. Both concerts take place in the school's multi-purpose room.

Students should report to the warm-up area no later than 6:30 PM. Please have your student wear a white shirt or blouse with black or dark trousers or skirt. I am not asking you to purchase special clothes for the concert.

It has been a real pleasure for me to work with your children this year. Although I have only met with them a few times so far, their talent and enthusiasm are manifested in their high level of musical achievement for a program that only meets once a week.

More details will be coming as we get closer to the concert dates. Please share your questions or comments with me. Because I am only at the school part time, the best way to communicate is through email.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the concert.

Sincerely,

Albert Hunt, Instrumental Music Teacher
