

Native American Weblinks Resources -- December 2010

*This site gives an overview of the different dwellings, clothing, plants and animals for different geographical regions. Not tribe specific but a good place to start.

<http://www.ahsd25.k12.il.us/curriculum%20info/nativeamericans/Index.html>

*A Thinkquest website with a fantastic chart of information for several tribes and the Iroquois nation. Also includes crafts, games and famous Native Americans.

http://library.thinkquest.org/I0110072/navigation/native\_american\_chart.htm

*This website looks at the Tlingit, Lakota (Sioux), Diné (Navajo), Miscogee (Creeks) and Iroquis tribes. Find out about the food they ate, and their housing, clothing, ceremonies, and more.

<http://www.multcolib.org/homework/natamhc.html>

Information on individual native nations

<http://www.nativeculturelinks.com/nations.html>

*Native American Facts for Kids. Scroll down the page to find individual links to tribes.

<http://www.native-languages.org/kids.htm>

Links to individual tribes.

<http://www.mnsu.edu/emuseum/cultural/northamerica/index.shtml>

*Links to Navajo, Inuit, Kwakiut and Cheyenne

<http://www.nhusd.k12.ca.us/ALVE/NativeAmerhome.html/nativeamhome.html>

National Museum of the American Indian (look here for examples of Native American crafts, jewelry and artwork).

<http://www.nmai.si.edu/>

Scroll down the page for links to various tribes. If a message pops up for a password just press cancel. You can still use the links.

<http://www.hanksville.org/NAresources/indices/NAculture.html>

Links to Native American resources

http://www-bcf.usc.edu/~cmmr/Native\_American.html

From the History Channel. Scroll down the page to the geographic location of your tribe and it may be linked from there. This site gives some of the history of various tribes.

<http://www.history.com/topics/native-american-cultures>

More tribal links. Scroll down the page for the tribe that interest you. Click on the link. A lot of text but also a lot of information.

<http://www.tolatsga.org/Compacts.html>

*Lots of links to history, culture, today. Scroll down the page to find individual tribe links.

http://www.kidinfo.com/american\_history/native\_americans.html

*Information about houses, food, clothing and history for the Dine, Muscogee, Tlingit, Lakota and Iroquois tribes

<http://www.ic.arizona.edu/ic/kmartin/School/amer1.htm>

Links to tribes (some are no longer available).

<http://www.42explore2.com/native4.htm>

Prepared by Concetta Goodrich

Media Specialist

December 2010