

Topic Sentence and Explanation:

"Walk Two Moons" made me feel...curious and nervous.

Text Support/Reason #1:

It made me feel curious when the mysterious young man came to Phoebe's front door.

Explanation:

He just came out of nowhere and I wanted to know who he was. He was acting like he needed to see Phoebe's mother urgently. I think he might be the lunatic and am curious to find out.

Text Support/Reason #2:

Along with feeling curious, I am also feeling nervous when I read the book. I felt nervous when Gramps went into the woman's car and started pulling out the "snakes" which were really hoses.

Explanation:

I felt this way because if he pulled the wrong hose out, I thought the car could blow up. I also wondered if her engine would end up on the ground, which it did.

"Walk Two Moons" made me feel curious and nervous. It made me feel curious when the mysterious young man came to Phoebe's front door. He just came out of nowhere and I wanted to know who he was. He was acting like he needed to see Phoebe's mother urgently. I think he might be the lunatic and am curious to find out. Along with feeling curious, I am also feeling nervous when I read the book. I felt nervous when Gramps went into the woman's car and started pulling out the "snakes" which were really hoses. I felt this way because if he pulled the wrong hose out, I thought the car could blow up. I also wondered if her engine would end up on the ground, which it did.

Feeling Words List - Reaction

Happy

Sad

Excited

Curious

Mad

Confused

Worried

Scared

Disappointed

Bored

Magical

Cynical

Inspired

Addicted - Obsessed

Surprised

Disgusted

Annoyed

Jealous

Awestruck

Entertained

Grossed out

Anxious/Nervous

Creeped out

Horrified

Flabbergasted

Paralyzed

Humored

Sick

Attached

Mortified

Cheated