

ALBERT EINSTEIN HIGH SCHOOL ACADEMY PROGRAMS

The Academy of Finance is a college-preparatory program and a member of the National Academy Foundation. Established in 1982, the Academy of Finance operates as a "school within a school" and is located in more than 275 high schools nationwide, in 40 states. It introduces students to the broad career opportunities in the financial services industry. The Academy provides students with opportunities to make sound choices for their future in the financial field.

The International Baccalaureate (IB) program provides highly motivated students with an opportunity to pursue a rigorous, comprehensive curriculum, based on a global perspective. This liberal arts program is designed to prepare students for the university experience. Students who are not in the IB program are allowed to take IB classes if there are openings.

The Renaissance Academy emphasizes the development of mathematical, reading, writing, and public speaking skills and their application in the arts and sciences. Students will master the skills, facts, and theories of academics necessary for college and post graduate success while developing critical thinking skills as they explore the ethical, interpretive, and interpersonal facets of knowledge, history and the arts. Strong student-parent-teacher partnerships are developed for student success.

The Academy of Visual and Performing Arts provides students with both a strong academic and arts education. This program prepares students for entry into careers in the creative and performing arts.
