

PRE- IB ENGLISH 10
REQUIRED SUMMER READING 2011

Welcome to Pre-IB English 10. Over the summer you will read Oscar Wilde's Picture of Dorian Gray and submit a written response to turnitin.com. The novel can be found on-line at www.upword.com/wilde/dorgray1.html, at the public library, or if you choose, purchased for your own personal library. The text will also be used as the basis of lessons for the first few weeks of school.

SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING WRITTEN RESPONSE TO TURNITIN.COM BY August 26, 2011/Deadline August 31, 10% off:

Oscar Wilde writes in his preface, "There is no such thing as a moral or an immoral book. Books are well written, or badly written. That is all."

Do you agree or disagree with Oscar Wilde's quotation? Why? In a well-written response citing evidence from the text, decide if the novel is a moral book, an immoral book, a well written or a badly written book. (500 word minimum)

Submit your response to your English teacher on turnitin.com. Follow directions on this sheet for setting up a new user profile. Class information is included below.
