Dear Bullfrog families,

This month, as we reflect on Black History, I hope we will also take some time to reflect--with our family and friends--on the remarkable advancements that Black Americans have championed throughout the year. Black Americans are represented in every aspect of American life. We are doctors, lawyers, and educators. We are musicians, artists, athletes and entertainers. We drive trucks, serve food, clean buildings, and work on assembly lines. We own businesses and coach soccer. We serve our communities as policeman and fireman, and our country as servicemen and women and government officials.

As we celebrate the history and achievements of Black Americans, let us remember to teach our children the value of hard work, the power of compassion, and the need for ALL Americans to work together towards a bright, inclusive future. In the words of Frederick Douglass,
