

A Joyful Winter Concert

The annual Highland View Winter Concert once again brightened the audience's spirits as they enjoyed performances by the chorus and the instrumental music students.

Ms. Underdue, the instrumental music teacher began the program with the beginning band. These brass and flute musicians started playing together this year. They performed; "The Whole Thing," "Hot Cross Buns," "Au Claire de la Lune," and "Lightly Row."

The beginning strings played the following: "Bowing on the A and D Strings," "Caribbean Island," "Song for Christine," and "Natalie's Rose."

The advanced strings performed "Burlesque" and "Gavotte in D." The Advanced band played a perennial favorite "Jingle Bells," "A Mix of Mozart," and "The Olympians."

Ms. Pfaff, our general music teacher, started the choral portion of the program with the "Song for Autumn." The piece began with a fifth grade soloist gently strumming a harp as the fifth grade percussionists lightly eased into the song. They also accompanied the chorus singing "Sing a Song of Winter." The chorus also sang "Northern Lights," "The Three O'clock Rehearsal," "A New Year," "Do You Hear?" and ended the evening with a rousing rendition of "Top O'The Music to You."

We extend our great appreciation to Mr. Rick Wright who accompanied Ms. Underdue on the piano and to Mr. Bruce Pfaff, Highland View's favorite sound engineer.
