

Welcome to College Ed

Teacher: Ms. Denise Cherry

Here is a picture of me with a picture of my daughter on my shirt! My daughter is 23 years old. She has a degree in Psychology, but is a professional actress. She has been living in New York, but may come home and find acting jobs here. Did you know that there are many theatre type places in the Washington, DC area where actors and actresses can make a living? It's true. But there are so many careers to explore, right here in the Washington, DC area.

- What are your interests?
- What are your skills?
- What would you like to be when you have finished school?
- What training will you need?

Here is a great web site to visit if you want to know more about careers and what they pay. <http://www.kids.gov>. Just click on middle school, then careers. You will find a description of many careers, job outlooks, the training and skills you will need, and a pay scale. Check it out! Another site you may want to use to practice SAT testing and vocabulary words is <http://www.collegeboard.com>.

Enjoy our class. The future is an exciting place because you are in it!

We take field trips to the now famous Hood College!

Hood again ranked high by U.S. News & World Report

10-Sep-08

FREDERICK, Md.--Hood College was once again ranked as one of the country's best and most affordable colleges by a national news magazine.

Hood ranked third among more than 160 regional schools in the "Great Schools, Great Prices" in the Universities-Master's category of the U.S. News & World Report's 2009 edition of America's Best Colleges, which was released Aug. 22. Hood is also in the top tier and the top 25 percent in the "Best Universities-Master's" category, among the schools in the northern region.

Hood has consistently scored high in the 23 years the magazine has been publishing the rankings. The annual rankings of more than 1,400 colleges and universities in the U.S. take into consideration dozens of factors, including academic quality, student retention rates, resources available to faculty, graduation rates, alumni giving rates, student quality, reputation among peer schools and financial resources.
