The "411" on High School College & Career Visits:

Each school year Northwest will host college/career admission representatives from schools all across the country. These college and career information sessions (high school visits) are open to juniors & seniors (freshmen & sophomores by special request). Attendance at these high school visits can make a favorable impression when applications are reviewed. The list of college admissions representatives who will be visiting NWHS runs daily on JAG TV and will be available on the Family Connection web site. All students MUST visit the College/Career Information Center, SIGN the College Visit Roster and receive a PASS. Note, attendance at any college visit is always at the discretion of that period's teacher and all class work missed is expected to be made up. Attendance will be taken at each information session.

WALMART FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS – <http://walmart.com/CommunityGiving>

At the Wal-Mart Foundation, we believe that a good education creates opportunities that lead to a better life. To help offset rising college tuition costs, we recently awarded more than 39 million in academic scholarships to help students afford higher education in the 2010-2011 school year.

The Wal-Mart Foundation offers three scholarship programs and also administers the Walton Family Foundation Scholarship on behalf of the Walton Family Foundation. To learn more about these programs or to apply, click on the links below.

HISPANIC SCHOLARSHIP FUND – www.hsf.net

The Hispanic Scholarship Fund's (HSF) mission is to strengthen America by advancing the college education of Hispanic Americans. We deliver a range of programs to Hispanic families and students through community outreach and education, affordability via scholarships, college retention and career opportunities.

Celebrating its 35th year, the Hispanic Scholarship Fund has awarded over $500M, resulting in close to 100,000 scholarships to Hispanic students.

From the Hispanic Scholarship Fund website: For details on the scholarship programs available, select "Scholarships" from the navigation bar. Select the link for "High School Students".

Harvard University Announcement: No tuition for students below $50,000 a year.

If you know of a family earning less than $50,000 a year with an honor student graduating from high school, contact Harvard University, you may be eligible for a prestigious university recently announced that from now on undergraduate students from low-income families can go to Harvard for free. No tuition and no student loan!

To find out more about Harvard offering free tuition for families making less than $50,000 a year, visit Harvard's financial aid website at: <http://www.harvard.edu/financialaid> or call the school's financial aid office at (617) 495-1013

Available on the web!

From our school web site select the "College & Career Info" link on the navigation bar. Then select the "Scholarships & Financial Aid" link on the left side of the screen. Scholarship applications may also be mailed electronically with a limited number of copies available in the College/Career Information Center.
