

Name: _____

Teacher: _____

Mystery Composer

Directions: These four clues will help you to find the mystery composer. You may ask an adult to help you find the answer. You may also use the internet, an encyclopedia, or a music dictionary.

Clue 1: His nickname was “The March King.”

Clue 2: He was an American.

Clue 3: He was born in 1854 and died in 1932.

Clue 4: He wrote “The Washington Post March.”

This is a fun activity. You do not have to find the mystery composer. If you discover the mystery composer, write the answer below and give this paper to Mrs. Davis. You will get a prize if you turn in the correct answer. Good luck!
