

IB English 12 Summer Reading List

Grade 12 (IB 2)

REQUIRED SUMMER READING: Death in Venice and Madame Bovary. (Both of these works are used for the IB external assessment in October. "Death in Venice" from Death in Venice will be discussed in class and is the only required reading from this text. Please see the accompanying packet for this assignment.)

RECOMMENDED SUMMER READING: A Farewell to Arms and To the Lighthouse. (It is highly recommended that students complete a preliminary reading of these texts during the summer.)

READING LIST FOR COURSE:

Death in Venice	Mann (translated by HT Lowe), Vintage
A Farewell to Arms	Hemingway
A Room of One's Own	Woolf
Heart of Darkness	Conrad
Madame Bovary	Flaubert (translated by L. Bair), Bantam Books
The River Between	Ngugi, Heinemann African Writers Series
To the Lighthouse	Woolf, Harvest
The poetry of Eavan Bolland

NOTE: The translations and editions listed above are those used in the classroom. Students will need to be able to cite text and page numbers from the correct translations in class.

If you have any questions about the summer reading over the summer, please contact Nancy Shay at Nancy_S_Shay@mcpsmd.org.