Updates and News

Fall Festival

We will have our annual Fall Festival Parade and classroom parties at 1:45 p.m. on Friday, October 28th. Students may wear their costumes in the parade. Parents are welcome to attend to view the parade, and to participate in the classroom parties. Please remember that fake weapons, even if it is a part of a costume, are not allowed in school. If you do not want your child to participate in the Fall Festival activities, please contact your classroom teacher as soon as possible.

PTA Meeting

The next PTA Meeting is next Tuesday, November 1st. There will be extra time during the PTA meeting to talk with teachers about homework expectations. Every grade level will be represented. We hope you can join us.

Red Ribbon Week

This week is Red Ribbon Week! Students can dress up this week to show their commitment to saying no to drugs.

Monday-Team Up Against Drugs

-Wear sports attire

Tuesday-Living Drug Free is no Sweat

-Wear sweats to school

Wednesday-Drugs turn you Inside-Out

-Wear your clothes inside-out

Thursday-I Pledge to be Drug Free

-Wear red, white and blue

Friday-Say BOO to Drugs

-Bring your costumes to school and wear them in the parade!

Book Fair

The PTA is sponsoring our Fall Book Fair. It will be held in the Media Center next week. Classroom teachers will sign up for times to visit the Book Fair with their students. Students may purchase books at that time. Parents and children are also welcome to attend the Family Night from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, October 26th. The Book Fair will also be open Friday afternoon until 3:30 so parents can stop by after the Fall Festival. The Book Fair is a great way to get books into the hands of our students. A portion of the proceeds also go to the PTA. Please use caution when sending money to school for the book fair.

Read-A-Thon

The Read-A-Thon was a huge success! The students read a combined total of 127,353 minutes! We raised $12,875.15 for the PTA. Thank you to everyone who participated in the Read-A-Thon. A huge thank you to the PTA for organizing this event.

School Closed

Please remember that school will be closed this coming Monday, October 31st for a professional day.
