

Finishing the Mural (Outside by the Front Entrance)...after several months of winter weather and cold, we are almost finished putting the final details on the mural. This includes painting cherry blossoms on the tree that are inspired by our beautiful ornamental trees outside the front of the school.

