

When It's Time to Practice Spelling

The following activities may be used to study spelling at home.
Use lined paper, pencils, crayons and/or highlighters to complete

Building Blocks

little

l

li

lit

litt

littl

little

Decorate it

Write the word and decorate using colors

Look Say Cover Write

Look at the word

Say the word

Cover it

Write the word

Check that you spelled it correctly

Word shapes

Write the word and then outline it (tall, short, fishing letters)

Focus on the Tricky parts

Write the word

Highlight the target sounds (vowels, blends, digraphs, and chunks)

OR highlight the tricky parts (been)

Vowels and consonants

Write the word.

Use crayons to color the vowels yellow and the consonants red.

little

Practice Spelling Test

Give students a practice test on Wednesday or Thursday evening before the Friday Spelling Test