Re: Dialogue with the Board of Education

Dr. Cronin requested information on the sewer moratorium in Poolesville, its status, the long-range plan, and its effect on the population in the Poolesville area. He asked the superintendent for a timetable for Board consideration of the recommendations of the Area 3 Task Force. He also requested that the superintendent, Area 3 staff, and Poolesville community address program needs at the school and provide the Board with a long-range plan for Poolesville to assure that students there received an excellent education. Mrs. Praisner requested information on the impact of the new Area 3 High School on Poolesville Junior/Senior High School. She also inquired about other junior high schools offering a third foreign language. Mr. Ewing asked for information on resources needed beyond the FY 1985 budget to assure that Poolesville had the programmatic capabilities of Seneca Valley or some other high school of substantial size.
