Alexandria City Public Schools

- ACPS completed a year-long strategic planning initiative in FY 2009. The division's mission is to "set the international standard for educational excellence, where all students achieve their potential and actively contribute to our local and global communities."
- The FY 2010 budget process realigned over 10 percent of the total operating fund to support the strategic plan. All elementary schools will explore and select an "exemplary program" during FY 2010.
- Alexandria's two middle schools have been reconfigured to create five smaller middle schools within the two previous campuses. The smaller school model will improve student achievement through a focus on student engagement, accountability, and the implementation of the Middle Years International Baccalaureate program.
- 69 percent of our teachers hold a master's degree or higher.
- 26 teachers have achieved National Board certification.
- 18 schools are fully accredited.*
- All students in grades 9-12 are issued personal laptop computers, helping to increase student achievement through the full integration to technology as a tool for learning.
- Graduates from ACPS are attending nearly 150 different colleges, including Cornell, MIT, Princeton, Stanford, and Yale.
- ACPS has a state-of-the-art high school, TC Williams, which has won numerous awards for its environmentally friendly design. In June 2009, TC Williams became the first K-12 school in Virginia to achieve the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Gold certification.

- The 2009 Newsweek/Washington Post Challenge Index ranked all APS high schools in the top half of one percent in the U.S. This is the fourth year in a row all APS high schools made the list.
- In 2007, Washingtonian Magazine named Arlington “a national model for teaching diverse students.”
- In the 2009 Community Satisfaction Survey, 94 percent of APS parents graded their child’s school with an “A” or “B” (compared with 46 percent nationally).
- In the same survey, 86 percent of Arlingtonians said that money for schools is well spent.
- AP and IB participation has tripled since 1998. Three-fourths of all graduating seniors have taken one or more AP or IB courses.
- The average APS teacher has 13 years of experience and 78 percent have earned a master’s degree or higher.
- Since 1988, APS has renewed and/or expanded 24 schools, rebuilt six schools, built one new elementary school. In the fall of 2009, the new Washington-Lee High School and Reed-Westover building projects were completed and work is currently underway to build a new Yorktown High School.
- The November 2008 Arlington School Bond was approved by 75 percent of voters. Previous bonds received similar support.
- APS received one of only six initial grants from the state of Virginia to establish a Governor’s Career and Technical Academy at the Career Center. The academy provides 21st century job skills to secondary students.
- Over 450 business and community partners have formed almost 600 distinct school partnerships.
- In 2009, all APS schools were fully accredited by the Commonwealth of Virginia.
- By December 2008, 117 APS teachers had earned National Board certification, bringing the total of NBCT teachers to more than 6 percent of APS teachers.

Fairfax City Public Schools

- Since 1962, the City of Fairfax School Board has contracted with Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) for the delivery of educational services. The City School Board owns and is responsible for its school buildings. Students in city schools have access to the same programs as are provided in all Fairfax County Public Schools.
- The City of Fairfax School Division is comprised of four buildings housing some 5,000 students in grades K-12. About 2,800 of these students are residents of the City of Fairfax, with the remainder residing in Fairfax County.

City of Fairfax Schools include:

- Daniels Run and Providence Elementary

Daniels Run and Providence elementary schools completed major renovations in 2000. Both schools provide a state of the art instructional environment, with technology available as a tool for learning. Both schools have additional resources to support a focus on mathematics, science, and technology. These schools are among the first in the region to offer world language instruction to all students. Each school has a capacity of about 800 students.

- Lanier Middle School

Lanier Middle School, often recognized for the rigor of its academic program, completed an extensive renovation in the spring of 2008. The newly renovated school provides a technology rich learning environment, as well as superior facilities for instruction in physical education and the arts. The capacity of Lanier is 1,100 students.

- Fairfax High School

Fairfax High School, newly renovated and rededicated in the fall of 2007, is an academic and arts showcase. Offering students a challenging academic program, including a full range of AP courses, as well as the specialized programs of the Fairfax Academy for Communication Arts, graduates are fully prepared for their futures; approximately 90 percent continue their educations in post secondary institutions. The capacity of Fairfax High School is 2,400 students.

Fairfax County Public Schools

- Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS), the nation's 12th largest school division, is a world-class school system inspiring, enabling, and empowering students to meet high academic standards, lead ethical lives, and demonstrate responsible citizenship.
- Four FCPS high schools were awarded gold medals by the U.S. News and World Report's 2009 ranking of America's Best High Schools, and seven high schools were awarded silver medals.
- All FCPS high schools were rated in the top five percent of the nation's high schools according to the 2009 ranking by Newsweek.
- Nearly 93 percent of FCPS graduates continue on to postsecondary education.
- All subgroups improved in both English and mathematics Standards of Learning (SOL) testing with SOL pass rates of nearly 93 percent in English and 90 percent in math, further narrowing achievement gaps.
- FCPS students outpace both state and national average scores on the SATs.
- The November 2009 FCPS School Bond was approved by 70 percent of voters—voicing strong support for FCPS schools.
- Despite challenging economic trends, including an FY 2010 budget which was $64.4 million, or nearly 3 percent, less than the FY 2009 estimate, the School Board has maintained focus on student achievement while serving 5,189 more students than FY 2009. # Falls Church City Public Schools

- A small, independent, city school division since 1949.
- All four schools fully accredited.
- Each school specializes in specific grade levels:
  - ◊ Mount Daniel Elementary (K-1)
  - ◊ Thomas Jefferson Elementary (2-4)
  - ◊ Mary Ellen Henderson Middle (5-7)
  - ◊ George Mason High (8-12)
- Consistently ranks among the top school systems in the region and nation in analyses conducted by the Washington Post and Newsweek magazine.
- Consistently recognized for excellence by the Virginia Department of Education and the U.S. Department of Education.
- Consistently scores above state and national averages on standardized tests. 2008 FCCPS SAT average of 1716 exceeds the state average of 1522 and the national average of 1511.
- Highest on-time graduation rate in Virginia 97.6%.
- 98 percent of graduates seek post-secondary education, primarily in four-year colleges and universities.
- Student body is multi-cultural. In 2008, the number of native languages spoken by students is 37.

Historical Accomplishments

- First Virginia school system to offer the challenging International Baccalaureate curriculum for high school students. (1981)
- Worked with Arlington County to become the first two Virginia school systems to develop an extended day care program, before and after school, for children of working parents. (1975)
- First Virginia school system to offer full-day kindergarten. (1973)
- First Virginia school system to voluntarily integrate schools. (1961)

Loudoun County Public Schools

- Due to the economic conditions, the Loudoun County Public Schools FY 2010 operating budget reflects the following changes:
  - ◊ The only non-personnel items which will increase from FY 2009 are utilities and fuel. All other line items reflect decreases.
  - ◊ The operating budget totals $732.6 million which is a decrease of $13.0 million or 1.7 percent.
  - ◊ No step increase or COLA was given to LCPS employees.
  - ◊ Health insurance plan changes were implemented to ensure that premiums will remain at the FY 2009 level.
- Student membership is projected to increase by approximately 2,481 students or 4.4 percent.
- LCPS will continue to focus on “A Climate for Success” for each of the 59,490 students while managing 76 schools and eight educational support buildings.
- LCPS made Adequate Yearly Progress as a school division under the terms defined by No Child Left Behind for the second consecutive year.

Manassas City Public Schools

- Manassas City Public Schools embraces the challenge and opportunity to serve the 21st century learner in a safe, healthy, and supportive school environment focusing on Rigor, Relevance and Relationships (the 3 Rs).
- Parallel block scheduling at the elementary level provides for reduced student teacher ratios in the core subjects of reading and mathematics and specialized learning in social studies and science.
- An intermediate school program (for 5th and 6th grades) helps to transition students from elementary to middle school.
- Students in Manassas are offered a full range of courses in career and technical education. The Osbourn High School chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) is recognized at the state and national levels.
- Under the “Manassas Next” initiative, a program sponsored by the City of Manassas, MCPS provides hands on activities for students across grade levels to explore and experience math, science and technology in exciting new ways through children’s engineering projects.
- Robotics, Odyssey of the Mind, and “It’s Academic” teams promote high level independent thinking and essential teamwork skills.
- Arrangements with GMU and NVCC provide opportunities for students to experience college level academics and obtain college credit.
- Expanded foreign language offerings complement our diverse student population.
- Manassas City Public Schools employs one of the highest percentages of highly qualified teachers in the Northern Virginia area.

Montgomery County Public Schools

- For FY 2010, 79.5 percent of the $2.2 billion Operating Budget is for direct instructional costs. School support services received 15.3 percent, and system wide administrative support is 2.5 percent. The remaining 2.7 percent is for enterprise fund activities, including food services.
- MCPS received an operating budget increase of $133.1 million, or 6.4 percent, in FY 2010. However, $79.5 million of the increase consisted of reimbursement to Montgomery County for debt service on school construction bonds. Compensation, including salaries and employee benefits, accounts for 89 percent of this total.
- During the past nine years, MCPS has added $116.9 million in reform initiatives, the vast majority going directly to the classroom. The largest increase went to early childhood education (including full-day kindergarten in all elementary schools), class size reduction, staff development, and special education.
- In 2009, MCPS had a system-wide average SAT score of 1616 with 78 percent of students taking the test.
- Six MCPS high schools ranked among the top 110 in the nation by Newsweek magazine in 2009 for providing a rigorous and challenging curriculum. All MCPS high schools are listed in the top 3.5 percent nationwide.
- More than 90 percent of kindergartners have met or exceeded reading targets in each of the past three years, essentially closing the achievement gap by race, ethnicity, and socioeconomic status at this grade level.
- Nearly 50 percent of grade 5 students took advanced math in 2008-2009.

Prince George's County Public Schools

Building on significant academic progress, the Board of Education of Prince George's County reconciled and approved a $1.71 billion FY 2010 operating budget on June 25, 2009, which maintains successful programs, and funds personnel and resources necessary to better prepare students for critical state assessments.

Although the overall budget reflects a net increase in revenue of $31.7 million over FY 2009, the revenues that support school system operation were severely reduced. The decreased revenues reflect the impact of the major challenges that the State and County faced in the current year. These challenges were largely marked by a loss in revenues associated with the housing market, including a steep rise in foreclosures and a dramatic drop in housing sales. These real property tax revenue losses, combined with a recession in the national economy and its residual regional effects resulted in reduced revenues for the County.

Notable, there was also a marked increase in revenue due to the Federal American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA). These funds were identified in the State budget, but located under Federal sources in the Board of Education budget as State Fiscal Stabilization Funds (SFSF) and Targeted Stimulus. These adjustments balance out to a net increase in revenue of $31,723,952.

The major items that are supported by the FY 2010 operating budget include: Stimulus Grant – Title I, Special Ed, Head Start, and Technology; Special Education – K-12 Autism Initiative; Teacher Incentive Fund; and the conversion of four schools to the Pre-K 8 model, as well as the duplication of a Creative and Performing Arts Pre-K 8 model at Benjamin Foullos.

Prince William County Public Schools

July 1, 2009

Members of the School Board, my fellow School Division employees, Prince William County community members, parents, and the students who represent the future of Prince William County and our nation:

A new fiscal year has begun, the details of which are contained in the School Board's 2009 -10 approved budget of $785,893,698. Never in the history of Prince William County Public Schools (PWCS) has there been a budget challenge of the magnitude we faced this year. Reductions in state funding and property values in the county forced us to make many painful cuts, originally creating a gap of $94 million. Fortunately, adjustments were made to the initial proposed budget, based on revised revenue projections, including an additional $3.7 million after the Prince William Board of County Supervisors set the tax rate slightly higher than what was originally projected, and $34.5 million in federal stimulus funds and Title I low income and Title VI-B special education monies.

However, even with these additional funds, the School Division is still operating with a reduction of $13.1 million in revenue from the previous year, and at a time when we expect to enroll approximately 1,423 additional students in September. Therefore, many cuts still needed to be made, including increased class sizes that leave PWCS very close to the maximum allowable class sizes in all grade levels.

Putting this budget in perspective, I am pleased to say that PWCS continues to provide quality programs for the approximately 75,000 students we serve and has approved a 2.9 percent salary increase for all employees, all while avoiding reductions in force. While the challenges were daunting, rest assured that you have my continued pledge – and that of our 10,000 dedicated employees – that we will remain focused on doing what is in the best interest of our students.

Sincerely,
Steven L. Walts
Superintendent of Schools

FY 2010 Expenditure Data Definitions

Operating Fund or Budgeted Current Expenditures

The data in this category include all funds for day-to-day expenditures for operation of the school system such as regular and special education instruction; may include grants such as Head Start, NCLB, Impact Aid, Perkins, and grants associated with IDEA; transportation costs including costs for new and replacement buses; and building maintenance for educational programs. Budgeted current expenditures also include the employer's share of employee benefits whether paid by the school district, municipality, or the state. The expenditures are typically funded in the school operating fund.

Construction and Renovation

This category includes all expenditures (which are typically funded in a capital improvements fund or budget) for land, new construction, major renovations, and relocatable classrooms, whether funded by the school district, municipality, county, or state through bond sales or "pay-as-you-go" expenditures.

Debt Service

This category includes all payments for principal and interest on long-term debt whether paid by the school district, municipality, county, or state.

Food Service

This data include all expenditures for the school food services program regardless of the funding source (federal, state, and local subsidies and food sales).

Other Governmental Funds

This category includes other Governmental Funds expenditures not included elsewhere, such as:

- Grants budgeted in a fund other than those listed previously.
- Adult education, defined as any remedial, enrichment, or makeup course or program offered outside of the regular school year.
- Summer school, defined as any remedial, enrichment, or makeup course or program offered outside of the regular school year.
- Other expenditures not defined elsewhere and defined within the chart.
