

What were the specific enrollment numbers for Health, Computer Science, and Science courses during the 2025 summer session?

In summer 2025, Honors Health Education, Foundations of Computer Science, and Foundations of Engineering and Technology were offered virtually. Together, these three courses accounted for more than 20% of the courses offered. Of 15,536 total enrollments, 3,159 enrollments were in these three courses combined.