

Response received from MCPS Administration

Teachers will begin learning about the shift in the new math standards this summer by completing the MSDE modules. Future professional learning will be offered to all teachers throughout the 2026–2027 school year, or next summer to prepare them for the new courses being offered during the 2027–2028 school year.