

Application for Appointment

Montgomery County Board of Education Family Life and Human Development Advisory Committee

Pursuant to Board Policy BMA, the Board will endeavor to appoint advisory committees balanced by geographic area, race, ethnicity, gender and a range of viewpoints, but the selection of all members will be at the discretion of the Board. Members will be appointed at the Board's June 14, 2012, Board meeting. Members are expected to attend committee meetings. Any member who is absent 25 percent or more of the scheduled meetings during any one-year period will be considered resigned from membership, unless waived for good cause.
