

11. The _____ horse ran through the grass.

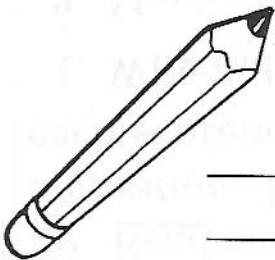

>Add an adjective to make the sentence more interesting.

10. The flowers are bright. The flowers are pretty. The flowers _____ are colorful.

9. We were looking for a book. My sister found it for me.

8. Bears hibernate in the winter. Bears stay warm in the winter.

7. Robins sing a pretty song. Cardinals sing a pretty song.

Combine the sentences to make one sentence.

6. Don't touch it.

5. It has been on all day.

4. How long has it been on?

3. The stove is hot!

or an exclamation.

Write whether each question is telling, asking, a command,

2. _____ likes to dig holes in the yard.

1. My family _____

Finish the sentences. Add a subject or a predicate of your own to make a complete sentence.

 F

Unit TWO Assessment: Sentences

Date _____

Name _____

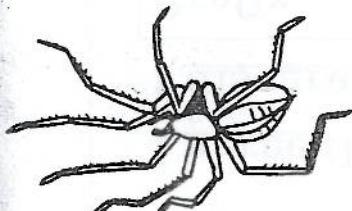

12. The spider escaped
11. Feed the spider today
10. Tell us what to do
9. The spider runs fast
8. Put the spider in a box with a wire screen over the top
7. Be sure to give the spider water to drink
6. Bring the spider to the pet store
5. I do not want a spider in this house
4. You can really catch flies
3. Stay away from the spider
2. Get ready to put the fly in the jar
1. Flies are really hard to catch

 Read each sentence. Decide if each sentence is a command or an exclamation. Then add the correct punctuation mark at the end of each sentence. Write C or E

Practice

They run so fast!

I cannot believe wolf spiders have eight eyes!

It ends with an exclamation point (!).

 An exclamation shows strong feeling.

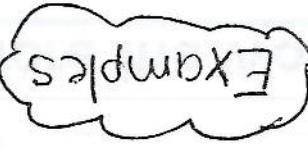

Put the flies in a jar.

You have to catch a hundred flies.

Period (.)

 A command gives an order or a direction. It ends with a

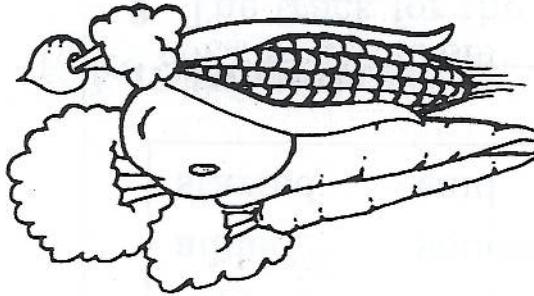

Command and Exclamation

Date _____

Name _____

12. In Indiana, corn and beans are grown.
11. A fruit grown in Hawaii is the pineapple.
10. Large mangos are grown in Mexico.
9. Different potatoes are grown in Idaho and Ireland.
8. Some cucumbers are used to make pickles.
7. Much heather grows in the hills of Scotland.
6. There is a plant called a fern.
5. Prunes are really dried plums.
4. Did you know that raisins are made from grapes?
3. Much rice is grown in China.
2. Many vegetables are grown in this country, too.
1. Many fruits grow in the United States.

once and each proper noun twice.

underline each common noun

Read each sentence. Then

Practice

Miss Pea Greenwich Super Food Store

It begins with a capital letter.

A proper noun names a special person, place, or thing.

girl garden fruit

begins with a small letter.

A common noun names any person, place, or thing. It

A noun is a word that names a person, place, or thing.

Get the Nouns Down

Name _____

Date _____

Books