

Word of the Day
Week 5 September 26-30

Day	Word	Definition	Sentence
Monday	precipitation	Process by which water falls to Earth from the atmosphere in the form of rain, snow, sleet, or hail.	This winter we did not get much of our favorite precipitation-SNOW!
Tuesday	migration	The act of process of people or animals moving from one place to another.	One difference between bird migration and human migration is that birds don't have to prepare or pack their things.
Wednesday	condensation	process in which matter changes from a gaseous state to a liquid state	Condensation always occurs when I leave my soda on my desk and I return to find wet papers.
Thursday	No School
Friday		Word of the Day is migration . Send your Word Wizard to the lobby with the definition.	