

Word of the Day
Week 6 October 3-7

Day	Word	Definition	Sentence
Monday	extinction	The elimination of a species due to natural processes or human activity	The Giant Panda is near extinction, but people all over the world are working to not let that happen.
Tuesday	natural resource	Something from the natural environment that is used meet a person's needs	The Indians that lived in Maryland many years ago used natural resources from the land they lived on to make their tools and clothing.
Wednesday	investigation	to observe or study by using an inquiry approach	Last year, Jill did an investigation to find out which brand of microwave popcorn had the fewest leftover kernels in a popped bag.
Thursday	pattern	repeated design of objects or shapes	One place to find beautiful patterns is on wrapping paper for all kinds of events.
Friday		Word of the Day is extinction . Send your Word Wizard to the lobby with the definition.	