Coordinator Clements's Comments

This was certainly an interesting start to second semester. I don't think I have ever seen so many snow days in one year. I know that there is debate in the Maryland Legislature about how schools need to make up snow days and I am interested to see how that turns out. However, since you are all students in AP classes it is important to remember that AP exam dates will not be adjusted. Make sure you that you are doing your due diligence and preparing for exams as best you can.

CHS has started a new after school tutoring program. The program is called Bump It Up and it is available Tuesday through Thursday in room 159 until 4:15. Ms. Trumbull and I offer this tutoring. We are happy to help with school work, provide help with organization and time management, or just offer a quiet place to do work. Please check it out if you are struggling and need a little extra support.
