

Collaborative Structure

A community school partnership with an integrated focus on health, social services, community engagement and development to support student learning, strong families, and healthy communities.

* On-site nurse practitioners and health promotion; pediatricians with 24/7 telephone coverage at School-Based Health Center Sites.