

A community school partnership with an integrated focus on health, social services, community engagement and leadership to support student learning, strong families and healthy communities

* On-site nurse practitioners and health promotion; pediatricians with 24/7 telephone coverage at School-Based Health Center Sites.