Cold Spring A-Z Summer Reading Program

DIRECTIONS

1. You have met with your teacher to set a goal to read ________ books over the summer.

2. Write the title of each book next to a letter where you think it fits.

   For Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A</th>
<th>Miss Nelson Is Missing, by Harry Allard</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Blueberries for Sal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>A Very Hungry Caterpillar</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. Keep this paper in a safe place all summer!

4. Bring it to your teacher the first week of school.

5. Meet your goal and you will receive a special surprise.

Here are some fun things you can do after you read a book:

- send Mrs. Little a postcard describing your favorite summer read 😊
- keep a journal of your thoughts about the books that you read
- write a letter to the author
- create an advertisement poster for a book
- persuade someone else to read it
- write your own ending
- search for an author’s webpage
- create a timeline of major events in the book
- draw a picture of a setting or a character and label it
- read informational books on a topic that excites you
- make an informational book with text features
- go to the library to find books by the same author
- check out the Montgomery County Public Library Summer Reading Program
