Web Announcements
September 13, 2018

- There will be a Softball general interest meeting today at lunch in room 176.
- Attention current Rho Kappa members. We will have a brief meeting tomorrow in room 222 at lunch.
- The class of 2022 needs your help to make the pep rally banner. Come to room 252 in the world language wing at lunch and after school every day this week to make our banner.
- Presale tickets for the Varsity NW vs Seneca Valley football game will be sold tomorrow (Friday, September 14th) at lunch at the NW ticket booth (beside the main entrance to the stadium). Please let your parents know that they may come buy tickets as well. Tickets prices are the following: Adult - $5.00, Student (ages 12-high school) – $3.00, Child (ages 7-11) - $1.00. Northwest season passes will not be accepted.
- The upcoming college career high school visit schedule: Today we have visits from Coppin State, Hawai'i Pacific University, Stevenson University and the University at Buffalo SUNY.
- George Washington University visits tomorrow along with the University of Colorado at Boulder.
- Coming up are visits from George Mason, WVU, the College Charleston, Johns Hopkins, the University Cincinnati and Washington University in St. Louis.
- The University of Maryland College Park visit is scheduled for September 26 and will be held in the cafeteria. Register to attend high school visits and print your pass in your Naviance Student account.
- Attention seniors: If you applying to the University of Virginia, you should know about the Jefferson Scholars Nomination! It’s a Full tuition and stipend awarded for 4 years. Submit your nomination form no later than lunch on October 14.
- Attention seniors: Find out how to apply for Federal Student Aid, known as the FAFSA, by attending the October 2 seminar; 6:30 pm in the auditorium. This seminar is FREE. No RSVP required!